

2024 State of the Movement Survey

Introduction

Stray Dog Institute (<https://straydoginstitute.org/>), with gratitude for Farmed Animal Funders' previous efforts (<https://farmedanimalfunders.org/resources>), kindly requests your participation in this foundational survey of nonprofits working to benefit animals farmed or caught for food.

This survey is open to nonprofit organizations worldwide whose core purpose includes reducing, reforming, or replacing the use of animals in the food system.

Survey responses will help to illuminate the financial resources available to these nonprofits and how organizations allocate those resources by country, animal, intervention, and intended outcome. We will make summary results public later this year and plan to repeat this survey annually, offering crucial information to all movement organizations and funders.

Key Details

- The survey will remain open until September 30, 2024.
- The survey consists of 17 questions, some in several parts, and should take 30 minutes to complete for most organizations.
- All individual responses will remain strictly confidential.

Instructions

- Please submit only one response per organization.
- Before starting, please have ready information about staff size and annual revenue and expenses.
- If needed, click "Save Now and Continue Later" at the top to save your progress. Note: Save the custom link provided by the survey; email delivery of the link has been inconsistent.
- Answers on all pages can be edited until you click "Submit" on the last page.
- If you need help, please email us at surveys@straydoginstitute.org (<https://mailto:surveys@straydoginstitute.org/>).

We know your time is valuable. Thank you for your response!

This survey is intended to benefit the movement. In that spirit, and in gratitude for your time, you will have an opportunity at the end of the survey to direct $25 from Stray Dog Institute to movement-serving organizations.

*8. At the end of your organization's last fiscal year, how many paid staff members, including employees and contractors, worked for your organization? Include only those working at least 50% of what your organization considers full time.

Revenue (Page 2 of 7)

In this section, we seek to understand your organization's revenue and its sources.

Schools and educational programs within academic institutions should report revenue only for the school or program, not the full academic institution.

- *9a. For your last fiscal year, what was your organization's total revenue from all sources? Please enter your answer as a number without symbols (i.e., avoid using commas, periods, or currency symbols). In question 9b, you will select the currency that corresponds to your answer. Example: To express three hundred thousand USD, enter 300000 in this field and select United States dollar from the dropdown menu in 9b.

*10. What portion of your organization's total revenue comes from each of the following sources? Please use the sliders to assign an approximate percentage from 0 to 100 to each revenue source below.

Philanthropy (foundations, individuals)

Public institutional support (government grants or programs)

Goods or services provided (consulting fees, sales, dues, etc.)

Investment revenue (stocks, bonds, real estate, etc.)

Private financial institutions (loans, financing)

Private investment (venture capital)

Expenses (Page 3 of 7)

In this section, we seek to understand your organization's expenses. For this survey, expenses include all expenses other than capital expenditure and any funds (re)granted to others.

Schools and educational programs within academic institutions should report expenses only for the school or program, not the full academic institution.

12. We would like to understand your organization's focus areas. Please use the sliders below to estimate the percentage of expenses allocated to each area of work during the last fiscal year.

Work directly or indirectly benefiting animals farmed or caught for food

Work directly or indirectly benefiting other non-human animals

Work directly or indirectly benefiting humans or other concerns

What to Expect Next

In the previous question, you reported the portion of your organization's expenses from the last fiscal year that directly or indirectly benefited animals farmed or caught for food.

The rest of the survey will ask how your organization allocates those expenses in four different ways: by country, by animal, by intervention, and by outcome.

Expenses by Country (Page 4 of 7)

All questions in this section refer to your organization's expenses during the last fiscal year that directly or indirectly benefited animals farmed or caught for food.

Please use the checkboxes below to indicate all countries where your organization incurred expenses.

The list uses country names and regional groupings from the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (<https://unstats.un.org/sdgs/indicators/regional-groups/>). We acknowledge that any global list of nations will have shortcomings, and we appreciate your understanding.

With Gratitude

Stray Dog Institute recognizes the following animal advocacy organizations, presented in randomized order, for providing free services to other movement organizations. If we have inadvertently omitted any organization that believes it should have been included, we sincerely apologize.

As an expression of our gratitude for your survey response, please select any organization from the list to receive a $25 donation from Stray Dog Institute. We commit to sending a minimum of $250 to each listed organization, in addition to any existing financial support we may already provide.
